PARKHURST'S SCHEME.

Has a Plan for the Purifying of the Senate and Assembly.

Dr. Parkhurst has laid out a campaign of education for this Fall, the object of which is to secure the election of members of the Legislature who are willing to give New York City the legislation that is necessary to insure reform. He believes that all the cities of the State need home rule as much as does New York, and he stated this morning that he will personally appear before urge the election of Legislators of a different calibre than those who were at Albany this Winter. He will do so after Albany this Winter. He will do so after naving his vigor renewed by mountain climbing in Switzerland and an ocean voyage, so the chances are that the Platt ring will get as hot shot this Fall as did Tammany a year ago.
"I am receiving letters every day," said Dr. Parkhurst this morning, "asking me to appear in various cities to assist in bringing about the same feeling against Albany dictation that there is in this city.

be elected who will represent public interests.

"What is needed now is for a few good men in each city to get together and help create a sentiment for home rule. They can do it and they are doing it. If I can assist in any city will do so cheerfully, and after my return I expect to accept a number of invitations from cities of the State to make addresses."

Ward Children Now Can Havo the Benefit of Education.

"The Evening World" scores anothe ctory for the people. This time it is the 3,000 and more little hildren of the Tenth Ward who are th beneficiaries.

Alderman Nicholas T. Brown, the Tan many leader in the Board, hearkened to the warnings of "The Evening World," and in the meeting of the Board this of the action of the Board last week it rejecting the report of its Committee recommending that the Essex Market building be condemned as a market and utilized for school purposes.

The Engel boys and three or four others having poultry stands in the market were to be made to vacate and the building be turned over to the School Department to be flitted up for the temporary accommodation of the 3,000 children now wandering the streets of the east side because there are no school-houses for them. Alderman Brown weakend a little afte motion had been carried, and he and Aldermen Oakley, Clancy and other Tammanyites tried hard to delay final action by references to other commit tees and the like. But they were voted down each time and finally Alderman Goodman, wearled of such pitiful nonsense, cailed for the previous question on the adoption of the report.

The Board voted to give the Esse Market to the chiefren by 19 to 11.

The Aldermen who stood for education and progress as advocated by "The Evening World were President Jeroloman, Vice-President Windolph and Messrs, Goetz, Goodman, Hackett, Hall, Kennefick, Marshall, Muh, Noonan Olcott, Parker, Randall, Robinson, Schilling, School, Ware, Wines and Woodward.

Much of the credit for the success of "The Evening World's" efforts in b half of the Tenth Ward children is due to the hearty co-operation of Chalrman Goetz, of the Committee on Markets, and Alderman Noonan, who stood alone and Alderman Noonan, who stood alone on the Tammany side for the schools first, last and all the time.
Mayor Strong has said he will approve the resolution. The next step is for the School Trustees of the Tenth Ward, Dr. Haupt, Messrs, Reynolds, Carroll and Storrs, to apply to the Sinking Fund for the transfer of the building to the School Department.
When the long vacation is ended the
